To be honest I never thought that I would approve of getting engaged to him
He's naughty, overbearing and what's more he's younger (and a shorty)
Everything he does is unreasonable and
For the time being we've started going out, but...
He's absurd but he approaches everything earnestly, and
But...
Wahh !!!
How the heck does going out means living together !!!

He's been bracing himself because in 3 months, there will be a succession cceremony
Succession ceremony?
Yes
We will formally announce him as the heir of the Joumori group then
To the young master, it is a very important ceremony
